

JERSEY CENTRAL THEATRE CO.

Presents

A Staged Reading of a Spooky Fun New Play for Halloween

Saturday, November 1, 2025 • 7:30 pm

In a crumbling London vaudeville theater, a silent film awakens a tale of ancient curses, astral possession, and theatrical mayhem. When Egyptologist Dr. Trelawny attempts to resurrect Queen Tera using a severed hand, a ruby ring, and the alignment of the seven stars, chaos erupts. With a rakish solicitor, a globe-trotting uncle, and a mummy on the loose, this horror-comedy blends gothic thrills with witty repartee in a rollicking tribute to classic stagecraft and the eternal power of love.

With Dino Curia, Roxann Kraemer*, Carolyn Leys, Ken Schwarz*, Jason Szamreta*

(* Member of Actors' Equity Association)

Suggested CASH contribution: $10.00
(Limited open seating. Doors open at 7:00 pm)

For further information: www.jerseycentraltheatre.com

A 501(c)(3) Nonprofit Organization

Patricia M. Kuran Cultural Arts Center
135 Watson Rd. (off Martine Ave.), Fanwood, NJ
1 block north of Raritan Valley Line's Fanwood Train Station

In partnership with the Fanwood Cultural Arts Commission

